The Storms.

Everybody seems to now be satisfied that we have had rain enough for a week or two. The first commenced Monday afternoon, and the old saying "when it rains it pours" seemed to be literally true in most of the rainfalls the past week, for the water seemed to come down in sheets and spread over the country in fine shape, so that every hollow or low place, and even most of the streets in our city had more or less water running down them. Some cellars have been partially or wholly filled with water and gardens covered with earth and water in some instances, about a foot deep. All our city ditches have been more or less torn to pieces and filled up, so that on the west side the water has been out for three days in succession.

The surrounding country has been receiving a good supply of rain lately and grass will now be likely to start growing, which will aid materially in saving many hundred head of stock.

South of Bloomington, Monday afternoon, there was a cyclonic storm that came from the southwest, with an immense roaring as of many armies rushing to war, the like of which we never before witnessed. There was also a rain storm coming from the north, and when the two storms met it was not long before the roaring ceased, yet some of the hail reached Bloomington and at Price there were even chunks of clear ice, which looked as though some one had taken a lot of ice and broken it up into small pieces about the size of the end of a man's thumb, and it dealt very rough with fowls.

The Rio Virgeh has been very high and some of the time it was dangerous to try to cross it. There has also been considerable water in the Santa Clara and the Clara field ditches are broken in some places.

The Price Dam was considerably damaged a strip being taken out clean to the bottom.

The Jarvis Dam is taken out and it will require a united effort on the part of the stock holders, if it is replaced this season.

The Washington Field canal has been badly damaged and it is estimated that it will cost $500.00 to put in repair again.

At Pine Vally, on Tuesday, a blooded mare and colt, belonging to John Thomas was struck with lightning and killed.

How far the storm extended we have not been able to learn at this writing, but trust that some of our readers in the country will forward accounts of the doings of the storm in their vicinity for our next issue.

Mrs. Rhodie Noah, of this place was taken in the night with cramping pains and the next day diarrhoea set in. She took half a bottle of cordial but got no relief. She then sent to me to see if I had anything that would help her. I sent her a bottle of chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and the first relieved her. Another of our neighbors had been sick for about a week and had tried different remedies for diarrhoea but kept getting worse. I sent him this same remedy. Only four doses of it were required to cure him. He says he owes his recovery to this wonderful remedy. —Mrs. Mary Sibley, Sidney, Mich. For sale by J. R. Michels.

Chairman of water committee, Brigham Jarvis, informs us that there is now a waste or flood gate in the west city ditch where the floods have been tearing it out the past week which is what has been needed for some time. This will prevent the ditch being broken again, unless an extraordinary freshet should come down the canyon from a cloud burst.

Cash paid for all kinds of hides by William Atkin.

The people of the state of Utah Vs. James J. Booth, charged with raping one Eleanor Bigler, was examined in Justice Daggetts court and Defendant bound over in the sum of $700.00 to await the action of the District Court, but he failing to secure bondsmen was remanded to jail. We understand there is a second charge against the defendant and the examination was waived and he was given the privilege of another $700.00 bail, but at last account he was still in durance vile.

Last summer one of our grand children was sick with a severe boel trouble. Our doctor's remedies had failed, then we tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy which gave speedily relief. We regard it as the best medicine ever put on the market for bowl complaints.—Mrs. E. G. Groery, Frderickstown, Mo. This certainly is the best medicine ever put on the market for dysentery, summer complaint, colic and cholera infantum in children. It never fails to give prompt relief when used in reasonable time and the plain printed directions are followed. May mothers have expressed their sincere gratitude for the cures it has effected. For sale by J. R. Michels.

Sister Cameron, who used to live in this city, died a few days ago. She was living at Panguitch, Uth.

The plats of all the school lands in Washington County are on file in the office of our County Treasurer, Horatio Pickett, and prepered claimants have 6 months from the 13th day of Jul in which to file their applications for the same, and if applications are not filed by that date, the land is liable to be filed upon by any person who so desires.

The School Sections are 2, 16, 32 and 36, of each township, where the sections have not been previously patented.

Blanks for filing will be here in a few days, and we advise claimants of this class of lands to see that their claims are filed in due season.
